LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of Cape Charles High School, wish to leave a memory of our past with the underclassmen. We have spent twelve years in this school and have crowded into them happy and wonderful experiences. In 1945 we entered the first grade with 27 members and when we began high school there were 20 of us. We have spent 4 years working and playing together. Today there are only 10 of us left and of these ten there are only 6 who entered the first grade together. Now we are ready to go our separate ways into the world, hoping to be successful citizens of America.

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1957, being in as good a mental condition as usual, and being thoroughly drilled in English, history, and math, do hereby make this our last will and testament, to be executed in the following order:

ARTICLE I.

TO THE FACULTY

ITEM 1 - To our principals, past teachers, and fellow students, we leave our gratitude for their helpful understanding.

ARTICLE II TO THE CLASSES

ITEM 1 - To the Juniors we give the thrill of being Seniors.

ITEM 2 - To the Sophomores we leave more girls to show up the boys.

ITEM 3 - To the Freshmen we leave our most sincere wishes for a good high school career.

ARTICLE III. TO THE INDIVIDUALS

ITEM 1 - Ellen Bradford - Leaves her ability to drive a car to Bonnie Colona.

ITEM 2 - Johnny Colona - Leaves his convertible to anyone who likes fresh air.

ITEM 3 - Margaret Groppenbacher - Leaves her well kept book on "How to Do Trig in English IV" to Nancy Suderno.

ITEM 4 - Teddy Phillips - Leaves all he can't take with him.

ITEM 5 - Ann Morabito - Leaves her well kept set of books to anyone crazy enough to keep them.

ITEM 6 - Frank Fitzhugh - Leaves his ability to crack jokes to "Wobbles."

ITEM 7 - Diane Lewis - Leaves her ability to get the most out of a pencil to anyone who enjoys stealing them as she does.

ITEM 8 - Gordon Rippon - Leaves his ability to hook school during hunting season to Jimmy Pruitt.

ITEM 9 - Jack Lovelace - Leaves his ability to attract the Franktown girls to Arnold Hudgins.

ITEM 10 - Betty Bender - Leaves to all her teachers her sense of humor without which she would have found school painful indeed.

We, the glorious
(If all goes well and we pass)
Will, in 1960, graduate.
(Oh happy day, how can we wait!)
But meanwhile in rhymes below,
Are each of us before we go.

FRESHMAN CLASS

With chest so big and manly--
Who else, but our own Stanley?

Frank Williams likes to play baseball
And loves to hear early spring's call.

Billy and Jan love to fish;
The one that got away--tish, tish, tish!

WORRY-WORRY!!

Ellen has a yen for Jack;
We hope he returns it back.

Betty Jean is quiet and looks quite shy;
Watch out boys, she's giving you the eye!

Sharon Savage and Jimmy Pruitt
Are always together making a duet.

"A la maison" is Jimmy's expression;
His French fills us all with indigestion.

Jackie Lewis is over six feet tall
How can we miss him at roll call?

Our greenest Freshman, Bobby East,
Doesn't think so, in the least.

Nancy S. came to us from Japan;
We hope she doesn't go back in a sampan.

Nancy and "Bip" are one and the same;
Short she is and full of game.

Billy Hamilton is a whiz at farmin'
And also is good at book larnin'.

Charlotte Wooldridge is her name
Her hair is like a brilliant flame.

L. T. has Elvis in mind--
They both have sideburns of like kind.

Holler "Squeaks" and in comes Jerry
Not Tom, Dick, Sam, or Mary.

When Bond is in a floodle,
He scratches the back of his noodle.

Mrs. McGrath is young and jolly,
But better not create too much folly.

Speaking from the mouth of the horse--
Lindsey S. is me, of course.

Mrs. Smith---"Carolyn, what are you going to do when you grow up?"
 Carolyn C. ---"I'm going to raise mint."
 Mrs. Smith---"MINT!"
 Carolyn C. ---"Yes, that's where Daddy says all our money comes from."

Mother---"Phil, the canary has disappeared."
 Phil L. ---"That's funny. It was there just now when I tried to clean it with the vacuum-cleaner."

Jerry J. ---"Hey, Bobby E. was kicked out of school for cheating!"
 L. T. ---"How come?"
 Jerry J. ---"He was caught counting his ribs in a hygiene exam."

Reggie---"What's that book the conductor keeps looking at?"
 Miss Parker---"That's the score of the overture."
 Reggie---"Oh, really, who's winning?"

Two girls who had been school chums meet years later.
 Ellen B. ---"My, I would have hardly known you, you look so much older."
 Betty B. ---"I wouldn't have recognized you either, except for your hat and dress."

Mrs. Russell---"You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?"
 Diane L. ---"No ma'am, not in the least, not in the LEAST."

Ellen T. ---"Why don't you come to my church?"
 Betty Rose---"Because I belong to another abomination!"

Jimmy---"Sharon, do you remember when we met in the revolving door?"
 Sharon---"Goodness, yes. That was when we started going around together wasn't it?"

Mr. Fitzhugh---"Why does the whistle blow for a fire?"
 Frank---"It doesn't blow for the fire, it blows for water. They've already got the fire."

Bill---"Why did the little old lady put wheels on her rocking chair?"
 Jan---"I don't know. Why?"
 Bill---"So she could rock and roll."

Rebecca---"Bonnie, what do angels do in heaven?"
 Bonnie---"They sing and play harps."
 Rebecca---"Haven't they any radios?"

Wobbles, a cunning little creature, blew a bean and hit his teacher.
 "Most impressive was the scene," Wobbles said "when bean met bean."

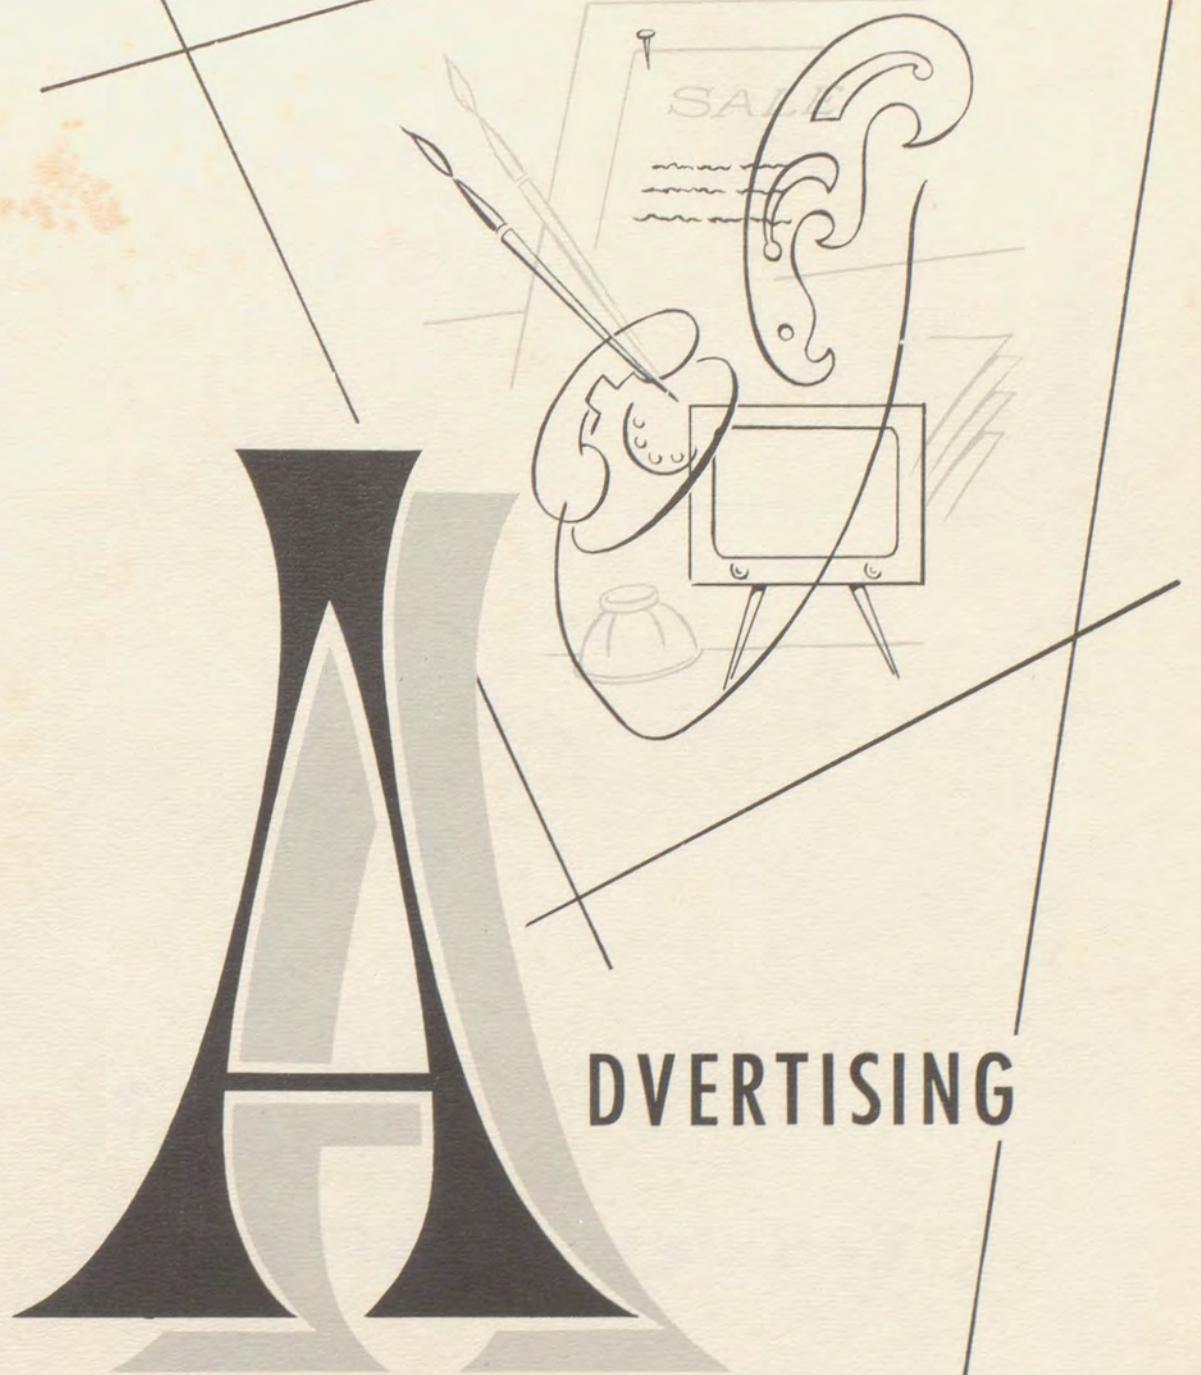

Ann---"I made this pudding all by myself."
 Tony---"Splendid! But who helped you lift it out of the oven?"

Jane---"What kind of car has Billy got?"
 Harry L. ---"A pray-as-you-enter!"

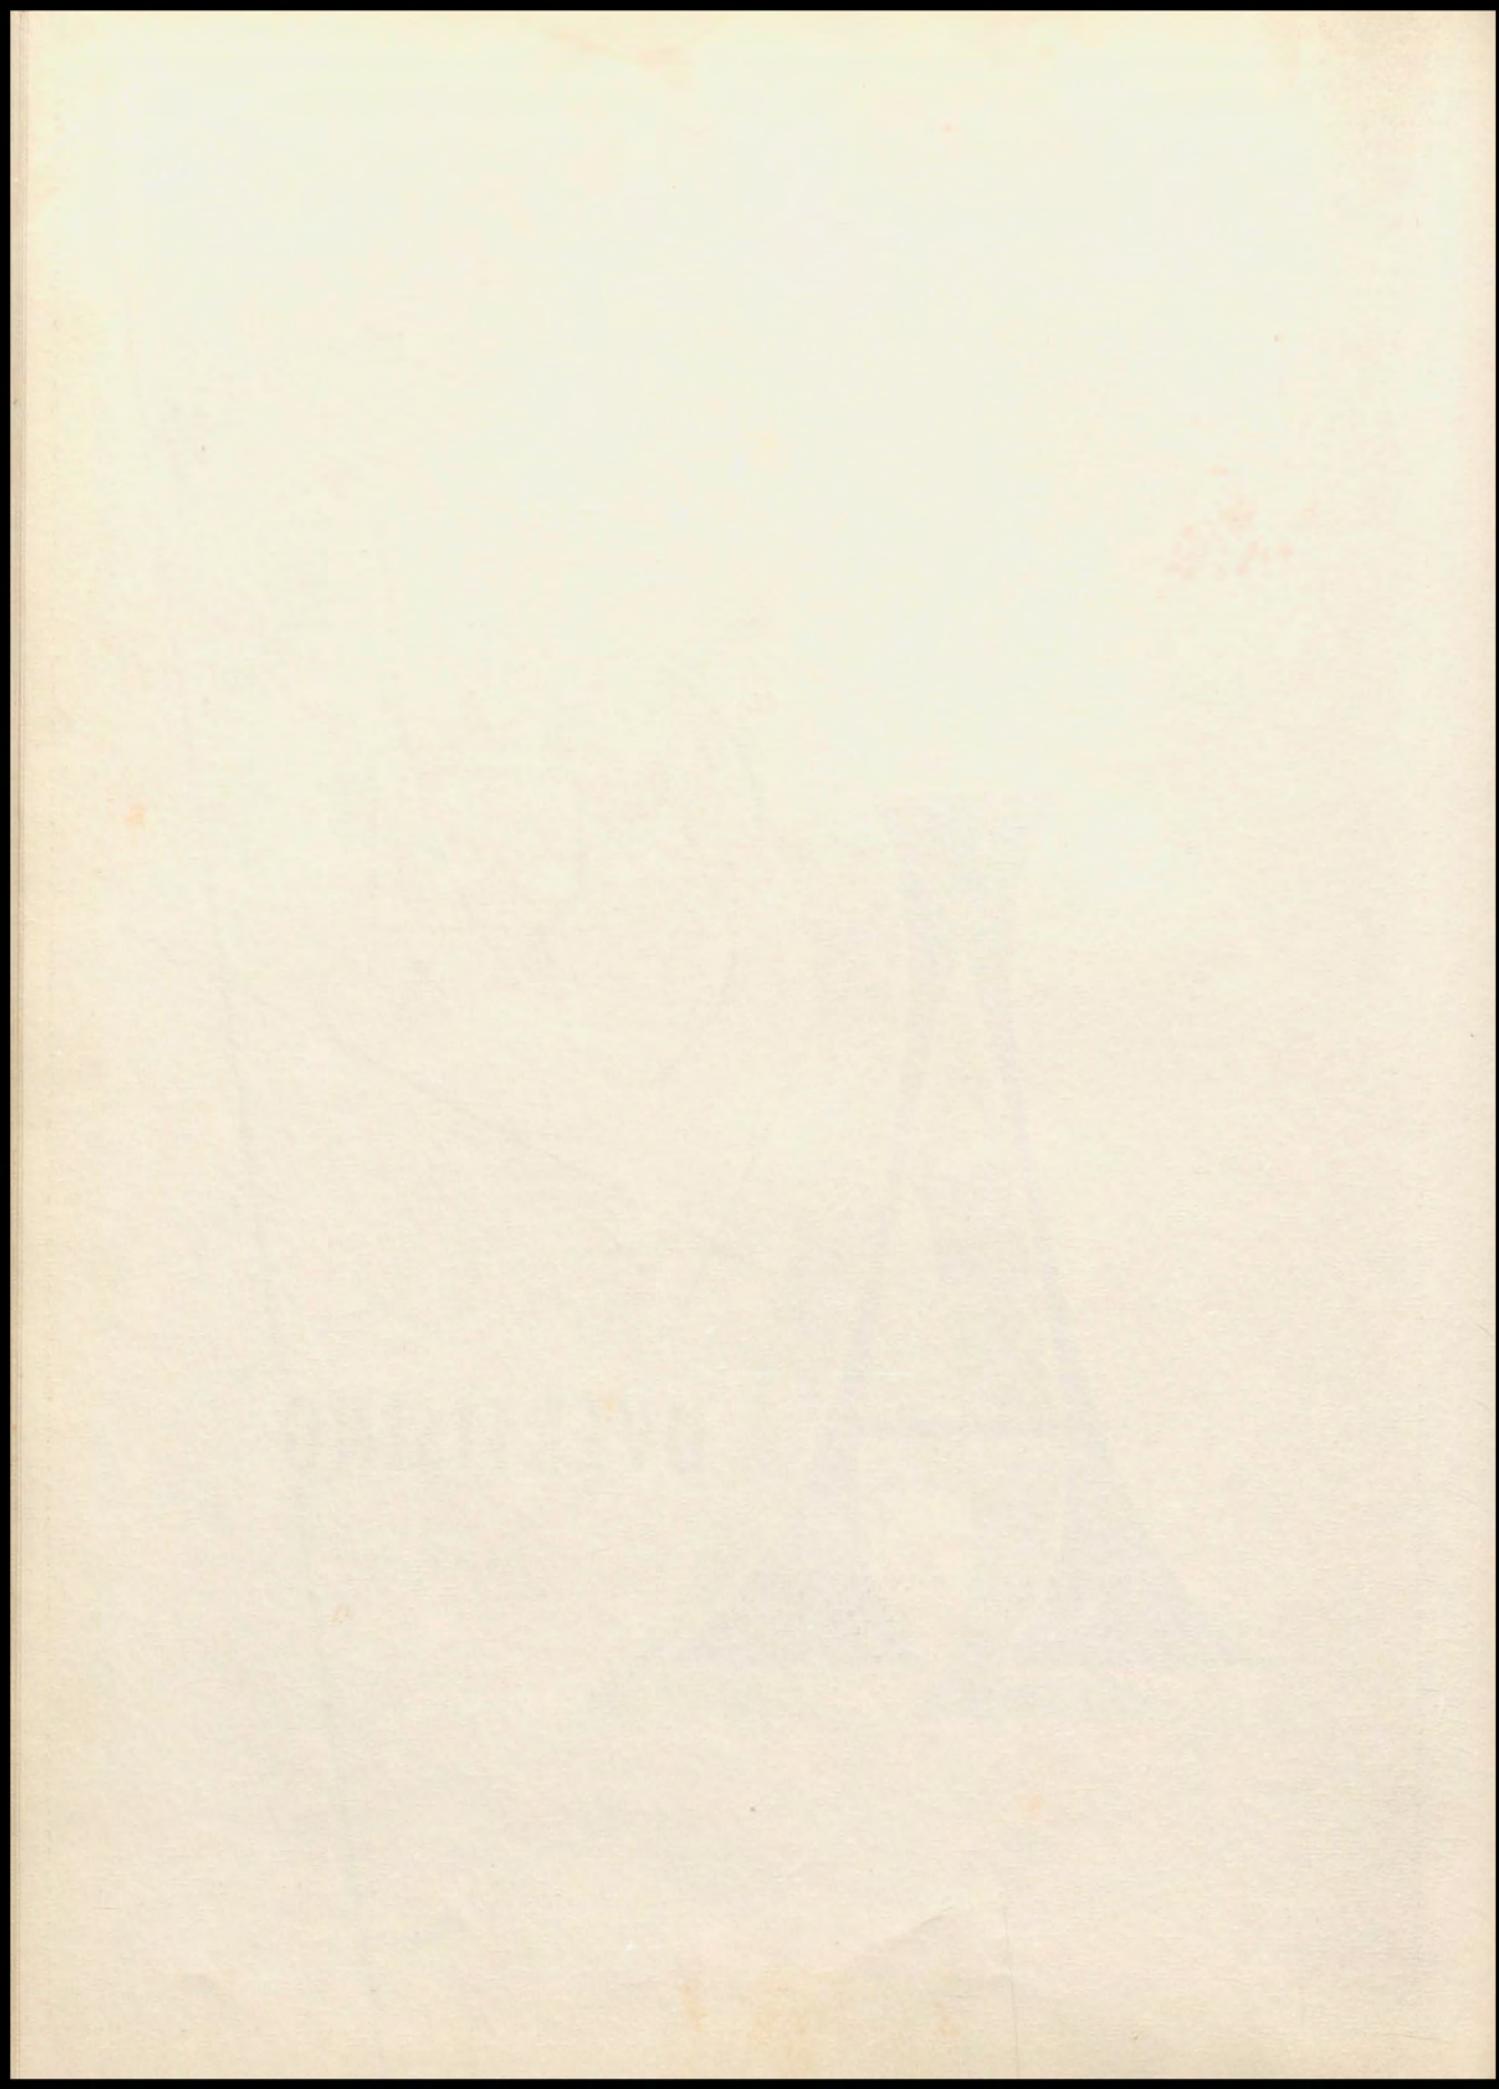

Stanley---"My, we'd love to go sleighing!"
 Frank---"MY, you're blood thirsty!"
